Building Works

Ten local houses are getting plug-in accommodation built to assist in combating the issue of overcrowding. All work is being done by the Wujal Council.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Laurie, Ian, Brian, Lucas, Patrick Jnr and Jarvis on completing their Certificate III in Water and Waste.

Centrelink

Currently the Centrelink computer is not operational. If you would like to use MyGov to complete your reporting requirements, please use the computers at the IKC. Alternatively, you can use the free Department of Human Services WiFi at the Centrelink office on your personal device.

ANZAC Day Commemorations

Sunday the 25th April was ANZAC day and a small crowd attended the Wujal Wujal commemorations. Dallas Walker, Shinnane Doughboy and Clayton Baird (not pictured) attended in uniform and joined the RAAF to lead the march.

Over recent weeks there have been some meetings and events scheduled to which Council senior staff and other agencies/special guests have made time in their busy schedule to attend. Due to community members not arriving at the assigned start time these meetings have had to be cancelled or rescheduled. Please be aware that the start time advertised is the time the meeting/event will begin, and it is advised that you arrive 10 minutes before the designated start time to prevent any delays or risk cancellation.

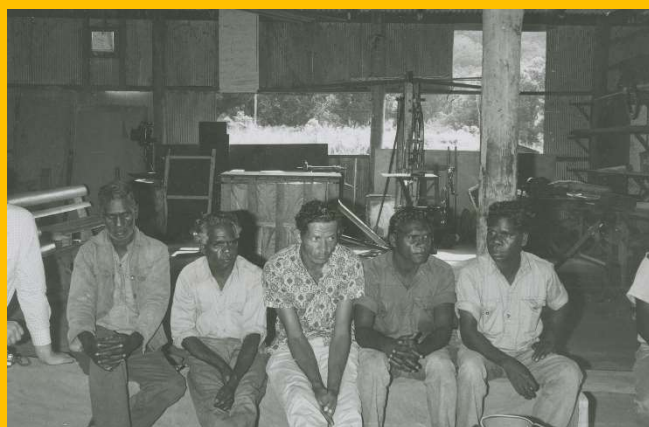

Farewell

Last week there was a farewell afternoon tea for John Melandri for his nine years of Police service to the Wujal community. We wish John, Tanya and Evelyn the very best for their future in Toowoomba.

HISTORY

Can you guess the building and these handsome gentlemen?
