

Youth Employment Program GUIDE FOR CANDIDATES

WHAT IS YEP?

The Youth Employment Program (YEP) is delivered by the Queensland Government's Department of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Partnerships (DATSIP).

YEP is an employment support program that provides a range of services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are completing high school and looking for work or considering further education.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with a Certificate III or higher, who are not supported by a job agency, can also be assisted through YEP.

BENEFITS OF YEP

- Get support to find a job
- Find out about career pathways
- Have a dedicated person for advice and support
- Get post-placement support when you find a job
- Link with culturally capable local businesses and industry
- Learn about success stories and share your journey on social media.

HOW CAN YEP HELP?

DATSIP can assist you:

- with researching your choice of career
- link to job opportunities
- connecting with culturally capable organisations
- with pre-employment support such as developing resumes and preparing for job interviews
- to access training opportunities.
