NEWS FROM OUR JABALBINA RANGERS

The Queensland Indigenous Women Ranger Network, hosted in Townsville went for three days, their were 65 indigenous women from all around Queensland attended.

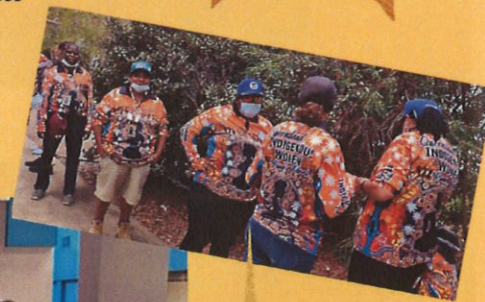

The QIWRN hosted workshops such as:
WEAVING WORKSHOPS
DIGITAL MAPPING
GRANT WRITTING
SNAKE HANDLING / EDUCATION

It was great to see our Eastern Kuku Yalanji Rangers Women attending the QIWRN Workshop, it has come along way for us since we established and great to even go Nationally.

This will include every women all over Australia to attend and to grow even more so we'll all have the experience. We would love to see more of our deadly women rangers join to make QIWRN bigger and better and also to be reconised for what we do as indigenous women rangers.

Thanks for sharing Nikita & Marella
