

Wujal Wujal Aboriginal Shire Council | Disclosure Log

Council maintains a Disclosure Log in accordance with the Right to Information Act 2009 \(Qld\). The Disclosure Log provides access to documents that have been released following formal Right to Information (RTI) applications, supporting transparency and accountability while protecting privacy and confidentiality.

Last reviewed: May 2026

Purpose of the Disclosure Log

The Disclosure Log enables members of the public to access information that has previously been released by Council under the RTI Act. Documents are published unless it would be unreasonable to do so, including where information:

- contains personal information;
- is confidential, exempt or excluded material; or
- is culturally sensitive or otherwise inappropriate for public release.

What is published

The Disclosure Log generally includes:

- non-personal documents released under formal RTI applications; and
- a summary of the information released.

Council may remove or redact information from documents prior to publication to ensure compliance with privacy and legislative requirements.

Disclosure Log Register

The register below provides a summary of RTI decisions and documents released by Council.

Reference number	Date of application	Number of pages	Description of requested information	Available for release

If no documents have been released during the reporting period, this will be noted in the register. This register is updated at least quarterly.

Access to documents

Where documents are available for release, they may be published on Council's website or provided on request. If you are seeking access to information that is not listed in the Disclosure Log, you may: contact Council to discuss administrative access; or make a formal application under the Right to Information Act 2009 \(Qld\).

Privacy and cultural considerations

Council is committed to balancing openness with the protection of personal information, confidentiality and cultural considerations. Not all information released to RTI applicants is suitable for publication.
